MINUTES OF REGULAR MEETING
GOODLETTSVILLE BEER BOARD

Date: June 13, 2000
Place: City Hall

5:00 PM

Present: James Smith, Roy Duncan, Walter Slater

Also Present: Ken Jenkins, Claudia Davis, Douglas Smith, Karen Leyhew

The meeting was called to order by James Smith.

The first item on the agenda was to consider on-premises permit for Douglas Ray Smith, owner of Dougie Ray's, located at 903 Two Mile Parkway. Ken Jenkins stated this building was the former Gameland and historically the Police Department has experienced frequent calls at this establishment, mostly for problems created with teens gathering in the parking lot, involving alcohol, drugs, and fighting. On behalf of Mr. Wilson and the Police Department's concerns, he recommended the Board consider a probationary period or understanding that this situation will be very strictly monitored to assure the previous problems and reputation of this location are kept under control. Walter Slater expressed his concern for the teen problem and stressed what a huge job has a lot invested and assured the board that he is totally committed to comply in every way. He stated he will have plenty of staff and during the evening, admittance will be limited to 21 year olds and over, unless they are with a parent. On a motion by James Smith, seconded by Walter Slater and unanimously approved, the permit was granted.

The second item on the agenda was to consider an off-premises permit for Karen L. Leyhew, new owner of Two Mile Market, located at 106 Two Mile Parkway. Ken Jenkins stated this is the former J & J Market and there have been no problems in the past couple years at this address pertaining to beer sales. On a motion by Walter Slater, seconded by Roy Duncan and unanimously approved, the permit was granted.

The meeting was adjourned at 5:20 p.m.
