

The Board then considered the two permit holders who were repeat offenders, Kirb Market and Mapco/Delta. The Board agreed to allow Kirby Clifton to surrender his permit voluntarily, since he has closed his market and sold it to someone else who has applied for a new permit.

James Smith made a motion to suspend Mapco/Delta's permit for the same 48 hour period with 120 probation. The motion was seconded by Jim Denton and unanimously approved.

The meeting was adjourned at 6:00 P.M.
