City Manager Tim Ellis announced the 4th of July Celebration will resume this year. The event will kickoff at 4:00pm and end with the fireworks celebration at 9:00pm at Moss-Wright Park. He stated the Board had a copy of the stormwater management section of the municipal code with changes. This will come back before the board for consideration. He addressed the Board to make them aware of a summer intern that is employed through the University of Tennessee Institute of Public Service. His name is Joshua Burchfield and he is a veteran of the Marines and is a student of the Masters Public Administration Program at the Tennessee State University. His primary focus is in Parks and Recreation and is spending the majority of his time in Parks. The City received word yesterday that it will receive a Local Parks and Recreation Fund grant to fund the construction of Rachel's Garden, an all-accessible playground that will be at Peay Park. State funding is $350,000, the City's commitment is $350,000 and fundraising at this point exceeds $100,000. This is great news for the playground.
